SERIES NOTES

LEADING OFF

The Chicago Dogs wrap up a seven-game homestand with a weekend series against the Winnipeg Goldeyes. The Dogs (18-18, 4th North) dropped three of four to the Kansas City T-Bones at Impact Field, but did salvage an 11-4 victory in the first game of a doubleheader on Thursday. Game starts are slated for 7:05 PM Friday and Saturday, and 1:05 PM on Sunday.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEYES

The Winnipeg Goldeyes have won seven of its last ten games and are currently 23-14 on the season, good for third in the North division. The Goldeyes took two of three games on the road against Sioux City, including a 9-7 win on Thursday night. The Winnipeg pitching staff, led by starters Mitchell Lambson (2.64 ERA) and Parker French (3.80 ERA) has been solid all season long - allowing the fewest total hits (285), second-lowest opponent's batting average (.239), and fourth-fewest runs (158). Rick Forney is in his 14th season as Goldeyes manager.

MEN ON THE MOUND

RHP Wes Torrez is set to make his second start of the season on Friday night at Impact Field. In three starts last season for the Dogs, Torrez went 1-1 with a 3.00 ERA and 16 strikeouts. The Naperville native's last appearance this season came against Fargo-Moorhead on June 23, where he allowed five earned runs on six hits, tallying two strikeouts.

LHP Jake Dahlberg gets the start for game two on Saturday night. The UIC alum struggled in his last start against Kansas City, allowing seven earned runs on eleven hits over 5.2 innings. Dahlberg also notched seven strikeouts in the outing, tying his second-best total on the season. Dahlberg is 2-2 with a 4.55 ERA and 33 strikeouts this season.

The series finale will send LHP Austin Wright to the bump. In his last outing Wright fanned eight batters, his most since he struck out eleven on June 2nd vs. Sioux City. The Schaumburg native finished with five runs allowed (four earned) on six hits and two walks over 4.2 frames. This season, Wright is 1-5 with a 4.60 ERA. His 42 strikeouts are the second-most on the Dogs.

SAY HELLO TO GUSTAVO

Gustavo Pierre will make his 2019 season debut for the Dogs on Friday night in Rosemont. Pierre joins the Chicago Dogs after a 10-year minor league career that started at just 17 years of age, mostly in the Toronto Blue Jays organization. He reached the AA level with the New Hampshire Fisher Cats in 2014 before being traded to the Philadelphia Phillies' AA affiliate, the Reading Fightin' Phils, in 2015. After a move back to the Blue Jays organization, he signed with the Ottawa Champions of the Canadian-American Association in 2017, followed by a stint with the Pennsylvania Road Warriors of the Atlantic League in 2018.

BIG Z = BACK

The Dogs made national headlines in April when the franchise signed three-time MLB All-Star Carlos Zambrano. The Venezuela native, known as "Big Z," enjoyed a fruitful major league career, which featured an 11-year tenure with the Chicago Cubs and one year with the Miami Marlins. In September 2008, Big Z pitched the only neutral site no-hitter in MLB history. He now makes his return to American professional baseball after launching his comeback in the Mexican League and Venezuelan Winter League.

Zambrano picked up his first win of the season on June 27 against Kansas City, allowing just one earned run on two hits and recording one strikeout over two innings of relief in Chicago's 11-4 win. Zambrano has posted a 3.78 ERA in 13 appearances this season, while striking out nine batters.

NO ONE TEAM SHOULD HAVE ALL THAT POWER

The Dogs have slugged 39 home runs this season, which is tied for the second-most in the American Association. Keon Barnum is second in the league with eleven home runs and Tony Rosselli is close behind him with eight. Barnum added two more homers to his total in the Dogs' 11-4 win over Kansas City on June 27. Seven of Barnum's eleven homers have been opposite-field blasts. Interestingly, all eight of Rosselli's bombs have been in road games.
